OLD PEOPLE.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey or other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle at Massie's Pharmacy.

Doll Babies and Toys, new and cheap Gravatt's Fair, 9 Salem avenue.

BULLET-PROOF ARMOR TRIED.

Inventor Will Exhibit the Material Soon in Washington.

New York, Nov. 19.—About 100 military men witnessed the first exhibition in this city of Foote's bullet-proof armor, which was given a successful trial in Brooklyn a few days ago, and which the inventor hopes will work a revolution in the methods of modern warfare. The trial to-day was a success.

Mr. Foote expects shortly to exhibit the material at Washington, where he will request the naval authorities to prove its non-magnetic as well as its bullet-resisting powers.

MONTAGUE'S BIG MAJORITY.
